To Advertisers.—The Vermont Daily Transcript has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

PREPARATIONS are being made to make a well on the corner of England Street and Ferris Avenue, for convenience in case of fires in that vicinity. It is hoped that the well will contain water.

PIC-NIC.—The Good Templars of St. Albans, and of St. Albans Bay, will go to Highgate Springs to-morrow for a picnic. There is promise of a pleasant time generally for them, and the enjoyment of temperate pleasures. The St. Albans Brigade Band will furnish music for the occasion.

A SMALL FIRE.—A pile of shavings near the old gas house caught fire, or was lighted about 11 o'clock to-day, and a respectable amount of smoke was the first apparent result. The whistle gave the alarm of fire, and as a secondary result both fire engines were promptly on hand, Washington No. 1, being slightly ahead. A third result is that the lucky company will get ten dollars for getting the first stream on the shavings. The promptness of both companies is commendable, as the whistle hardly sounded before the engines were on the street.

RAILROAD THIEF.—In consequence of the largely increasing business of the Vt. Central Railroad the managers have just added to their present equipment five locomotives.

They have also closed arrangements for two hundred and fifty new freight cars to be completed and in the line by the first day of October next.

ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Smith, telegraph operator at Swanton Junction, with Mrs. Bullard and child were thrown from a wagon, about a mile out of town, on the Swanton road, on Thursday, severely injuring Mrs. Smith. Mrs. Bullard and child fortunately escaped unhurt. The horse they were driving took fright from something at the road-side and ran away, which was the cause of the accident. The horse, we understand, was totally unfit for carriage driving by reason of his wild and vicious habits. The injured woman returned to her home in Swanton on the sleeping car last evening, and we learn that she is quite comfortable to-day.

THE Massachusetts House, Rouse's Point, James Shaw, proprietor, with Mr. James Pierson as clerk, is an orderly and well kept house, and deserving of large patronage.

THE OLDEST STAGE DRIVER.—In the month of December, 1836, Mr. William C. Clark, then 24 years of age, took to the box at St. Albans and has been in the constant employ of some one of the stage lines running out from St. Albans ever since. Long before the building of the Vt. & Canada Railroad his coaches plied between St. Albans and Burlington, and the building of the road with which he could not compete instead of breaking up his business, only crowded it a little to the North East. Through wind and rain, sleet, mud and snow for thirty two years he has pursued the even tenor of his way, and many there are who will remember him with gratitude as a careful driver and genial good fellow. During his whole service he has never upset a stage coach nor met with a serious accident. He is now employed on the line between St. Albans and Richford and without disparagement to his colleagues, continues in the estimation of the travelling public one of the most popular drivers in this section. If there is a stage driver in Vermont who has been in constant service for a greater length of time, we desire to hear from him.

MASONIC.—The first election of officers of Rutland Lodge F. and A. M. under its charter, was held last Wednesday evening, with the following result, the new officers being duly installed after the election by Grand Master Hall of the Grand Lodge:

N. S. Stearns, W. M.
W. B. Thrall, S. W.
Luther Harger, J. W.
Geo. A. Tuttle, Treas.
S. E. Barnham, Sec.
Chas. W. Potter, T.
Ion Lippincott, S. D.
W. H. Schryver, J. D.
F. A. Shattuck, J.
J. M. Otis, Stewards.

Col. Charles H. Joyce will deliver the annual address at the Rutland County fair, on the 1st of October next.

RICHFORD.—The Republicans of Richford held a town caucus on Wednesday evening, which was largely attended. W. C. Brown was nominated for Town Representative on the second ballot by one majority, and the nomination made unanimous. A Grant and Colfax club was also organized, and the following officers elected:

President—Geo. W. Corliss.
Vice-President—McKenzie Rounds,
Dr. J. H. Hamilton.
Treasurer—S. P. Carpenter.
Secretary—J. B. Bowditch.
About one hundred were present at the caucus.

JOSEPH ASHLINE, who has been employed on "Union Bridge," Rouse's Point, died of Consumption, after a lingering illness, on the 14th. He was a good and faithful man, and was formerly hostler at the Massachusetts House.

BENNINGTON.—A few nights ago a respectable woman, while going into the barn to take care of the stock in the absence of her husband, was seized by two ruffians, who threw a shawl over her head and outraged her person.

Another woman was seized a day or two ago, and in the struggle her clothes were nearly torn off, but she escaped. Bennington is getting to be a lively town.

PERSONAL.—Captain E. H. Liscum, of the 25th Regular Infantry, is in town visiting his friends. Capt. Liscum commands the post at Columbus, Ky., and assures us on the strength of his own personal experience and observation that the reports respecting the murders and outrages of the Ku-Klux Klan are not a whit exaggerated. The number of murders in Kentucky whose known authors have not been brought to justice is perfectly startling. The sentiment which sustains this organization has its source in the highest social ranks of the community. —Burlington Times.

Political.

Judge Alexander Rives, Virginia, has come out earnestly for Grant and Colfax.

The letter of the Hon. J. S. Carlisle, of Virginia, giving his reason for abandoning the Democratic party, is described as a very strong document.

At the Tenn. Republican State Convention a letter was received from Gov. Brownlow, from which we take the following paragraph:

I congratulate you upon what I deem the certain success of Grant and Colfax—the former the greatest General of the age, and the latter the foremost statesman of the nation in the pending canvass; and I also congratulate you upon the certain utter defeat of Seymour and Blair, the standard bearers of the party of revolution and of the restoration of the 'lost cause.'

The Charleston (S. C.) News says: "While we will not promise what the sentiment of the South will not allow to be performed, (universal suffrage,) and what the voters of the North and West have condemned in a hundred elections, we do pledge ourselves to make the colored man secure in all his rights, and to enable him to labor with profit under the protection of equal laws."

Admiral Porter, as might have been expected, comes out strongly for Grant, and pronounces the story of his intemperance a falsehood. Says the Admiral: "I have known Gen. Grant since the commencement of the war. Our relations while co-operating on the Mississippi were intimate. They were equally intimate on Hampton Roads, on the James River and on the Potomac."

They have been so since the war, both in Washington and Annapolis. I have shared his hospitality and he has accepted mine. I have met him under all circumstances of fatigue and festivity, in sunshine and in storm, in despondency and in danger, and have had every opportunity of learning his habits and knowing his conduct; and I say that, during the whole period of my acquaintance with him, I have never known him to taste, nor have I ever heard of his touching intoxicating liquors, of any kind, not even wine. In common with all the officers of the army and the navy who have served with Gen. Grant and shared his intimacy, I have been both shocked and outraged in reading and hearing this allegation against him; and had my position been different, and had it not been that my motives might be misunderstood or misrepresented, I would have long ago denounced the slander on Gen. Grant as it deserves. I repeat, Gen. Grant is decidedly a temperate man, in principle and in practice. You, sir, and those who hear me, may repeat what I say to you, on my authority as an officer and a man.

Cautions.

The Republican Voters of the Town of St. Albans are requested to meet at Academy Hall on Monday, August 24, at 7 o'clock p. m., to nominate a candidate for Town Representative.

Varieties.

A young lady won gloves enough at the Saratoga races to supply her during the winter.

The White Mountains this season have been overrun with visitors, a large share of whom are flocking towards Lake Memphremagog.

John Godfrey Saxe, who has heretofore been a Universalist, now believes that there are two things to be eternally lost—his umbrella and the man who stole it.

The New York Mail says it is said that Gen. Wool will vote for Seymour, and it is not thought that this is a joke, intended to pull wool over people's eyes.

The first grain elevator in the United States was built in Buffalo, in 1843. Now Buffalo has 30 of them, and a storage capacity of six million bushel.

Mr. Daniel Gale sold last week the Fort William Henry Hotel, at Lake George, to T. Roessle & Son, formerly of the Delevan House, Albany. The price paid is said to be one hundred and ten thousand dollars.

The Troy Press says that last week, a number of young ladies were puzzling themselves with the mysteries of planchette, the question was started, "Who is to be the next President of the United States?" After slightly restive and irregular action on the part of the instrument, the answer was returned, "No you don't." The Press calls this answer a rebuke of the "Radical party." Well, it was given by the Planchette party, which is known to be quite unreliable, and which the papers say, after making several women crazy, is going out of fashion.

An ingenious Frenchman makes an attack upon the custom among composers of giving the tenor the role of the lover. "To imitate nature," he says, "the part of the lover should be played by the baritone, or each the bass. It is notorious that nature has endowed with more generous traits the creatures who possess deep voices, while those whose voice is shrill and high are generally dangerous and perfidious. Compare the Newfoundland dog (bass) with the cur (falsetto), and say whether you would rather be shut up in a cage with a duck (baritone) or with a serpent (soprano)."

EFFECTS OF SPRING WATER.—An old habitue of Saratoga—we presume a crusty old bachelor—thinks that the principal object which women have in drinking spring water is to get husbands. And by long and careful observation, he also thinks that he can tell about how much water is required in order to make sure of a husband. He says an elderly woman with seven daughters has married off three of them by drinking the waters of the springs, and that it required on an average about 500 gallons to a husband. —Traveler.

THE DROUGHT IN ENGLAND.—A writer in the London Times, in discussing the importance of storing up water in the agricultural districts, against times of drought, such as has afflicted England during the month of July, says:

In very many villages the hard-working laborer is paying for every drop of water used in his cottage ten times as much as the wealthiest resident in the metropolis pays for the supply to his mansion; and the want of drinking water, independently of the want of suseful grass, is telling with such impoverishing effect upon the cattle in fields that the irrecoverable loss of food (meat) to the nation from this cause will soon equal, if it has not already equalled, the loss occasioned by cattle plague.

Mrs. E. Cady Stanton writes from Skaneateles, N. Y.: "Before the sun was up this morning Miss Anthony and two bright girls from Brooklyn manned a small sailing craft, and went up the lake. They invited some young merchant princes to take seats on board, and remain quiet spectators of the scene. They performed some very difficult evolutions. In one rather dangerous manoeuvre, a gentleman, becoming a little nervous, was threatened with the fate of Jonah, which immediately brought him to order. It is truly melancholy to see how the young girls on all sides are flying from their sphere. With base ball and boat clubs, gymnasiums, driving, swimming, and croqueting, verily, the days of embroidering and crocheting ruffling and puffing, are fast passing away."

"Obtaining money under false pretences"—vending miserable hair preparations. A trade that is fast dying out, however; for the universal popularity of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" is rapidly putting a stop to such contraband traffic. —Richmond Enquirer.
